

Component of Discovery: Political

Definition:

Political includes how people are governed. For example, the matter of authority and obedience, including who makes the laws, decides on foreign relations, such as war, peace, collection of taxes, dispense justice, and provides services the general public needs. In addition, politics includes how people respond to being governed.

Consider:

1. Who is in control?
 - I. What type of government do they have?
 - II. Why does it work?
3. How do they get control?
 - I. List the signification rulers and their accomplishments.
2. How do they keep control?
 - I. What is the structure of the military?
 - II. How long did they stay in power?

Notes: